

“BUILDING A BETTER WA”

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The Inaugural Building and Construction Western Australian Conference is the first truly all-encompassing building, construction, architectural, engineering and facility management conference to be held in Western Australia. The conference will address the latest issues, innovations and industry driven topics currently facing Western Australia.

SOME KEYNOTE TOPICS

- * The Perth to Mandurah railway development.
- * Design and construction of the Perth Convention Centre.
- * “The Built Environment 2004”
- * Urban consolidation.
- * Future major projects in WA.

BUILDING & CONSTRUCTION

- * Housing affordability.
- * Advice on latest building codes and legislation.
- * Employment and economic activity.
- * Workplace relations.
- * Environment planning and development.
- * Approval trends.

ENGINEERING

- * Environmental issues within community.
- * Economic development.
- * Infrastructure planning and development.
- * Technology advancements.
- * Ethics within the community.
- * Innovation and growth strategies.

ARCHITECTURE & DESIGN

- * Urban consolidation and renewal.
- * New materials and technologies.
- * Light weight construction alternatives.
- * Global developments.
- * Minimise cost / maximise sustainability.
- * Targeting the urban spawn.

FACILITY MANAGEMENT

- * Year of the Built Environment.
- * Code of ethics.
- * Knowledge and advocacy.
- * Occupational health and safety policy of the FMA
- * Community.
- * Strategies of growth and solutions.

OUTCOME

To address specific Western Australian industry issues. This inaugural conference is driven by industry organisations looking for solutions valid to successful ongoing business in Western Australia.

Inaugural

INFRASTRUCTURE WA 2004 CONFERENCE

Western Australia's only Building, Construction,
Architectural, Engineering and Facility Management Conference.

Esplanade Hotel Fremantle
August 3 & 4, 2004

“BUILDING A BETTER WA”

Supporting Logos